

Statement of General Business Principles

1. Objectives

The objectives of the Company are to engage responsibly and efficiently in profitable businesses in the fields of refining and sales of oil and related fields.

The Company seeks a high standard of performance and aims to maintain a long-term position in competitive environments.

2. Responsibilities

The Company recognizes the following responsibilities:

1) Responsibility to shareholders

To protect shareholders' investment, and provide an acceptable return.

2) Responsibility to customers

To win and retain customers by developing and providing products and services that offer value in terms of price, quality, safety and environmental impact, and which are supported by technological, environmental and commercial expertise.

3) Responsibility to employees

To respect the worth and individuality of employees, and provide them with a safe work environment and good working conditions; to promote the development and best use of human resources; and to encourage the involvement of employees in the implementation of business and in the application of these principles within the Company.

4) Responsibility to business partners

To seek mutually beneficial relationships with business partners, including joint venture partners, and to promote the application of these principles in these relationships; to consider the ability and performance of these companies to conform with these principles in the decision to enter into or remain in such relationships.

5) Responsibility to society

To conduct business as a responsible corporate member of society, to observe laws, to express support for fundamental human rights, and to give proper regard to health, safety and environment consistent with the commitment to contribute to sustainable development.

3. Economic Principles

Profitability is essential to discharging these responsibilities and remaining a going concern. It is a measure both of efficiency and of customer satisfaction with the Company's products and services. It is also essential to the future allocation of corporate resources and to the continuing investment required to ensure a stable supply of energy to meet consumer needs. Without profits and a strong financial foundation, it is not possible to fulfill the responsibilities outlined above.

Criteria for investment decisions are not exclusively economic in nature but also take into account social and environmental effects.

4. Business Integrity

The Company has established a corporate code of conduct and insists on honesty and fairness in all aspects of its business, and expects the same in its relationships with all entities with which it does business.

The direct or indirect offering, payment, solicitation or acceptance of bribes in any form are unacceptable practices. Employees must avoid conflicts of interest between their private financial activities and their conduct on behalf of the Company.

All business transactions on behalf of the Company must be reflected accurately and fairly in the accounts of the Company in accordance with established procedures and be subject to audit.

5. Political Activities

The Company acts in a socially responsible manner within the law in pursuit of its legitimate commercial objectives.

The Company does not make payments to political parties, organizations or their representatives or take any part in party politics. However, the Company has the right and the responsibility to make its position known on any matter that affects the interests of itself, its employees, its customers and its shareholders.

6. Health, Safety and Environment

Consistent with its commitment to contribute to sustainable development, the Company adopts a continuous and systematic approach to health, safety and environmental management.

To this end, the Company manages these matters as it does all other critical business activities, sets targets for improvement, and measures, appraises and reports on performance.

7. Local Community

The Company is actively involved in contributing to society as a responsible member thereof. The most important contribution that the Company can make to the local community is in performing its core business as efficiently as possible.

8. Competition

The Company seeks to compete freely and fairly within the framework of applicable competition laws.

9. Communications

The Company recognizes that open communication is essential in view of the importance of the activities in which it is engaged and their impact on national economies and individuals. The Company therefore provides relevant information about its activities in a timely and appropriate manner.

10. Companies of the Showa Shell Sekiyu Group

The Company encourages these companies to adopt and abide by its Statement of General Business Principles.
